

RUDOLF HESS— Prisoner of Peace

By DOUGLAS KAYE

Many people do not fully understand the plight of Rudolf Hess. The simple fact of the matter is that, as of May 10, the man has been in jail for a period of thirty years. He has been held in solitary confinement behind the grim walls of Spandau Prison, West Berlin, sent there illegally on trumped-up charges of "war crimes."

Rudolf Hess was Deputy Party Leader in Nationalist Socialist Germany and Chief of the Party Chancellery. His duties consisted of managing the internal affairs of the party, regulating membership and assignments.

The Real Warmongers

The war that the International Bankers and Jewish journalists declared against Western Civilization in 1933 (see Samuel Untermyer's speech) burst fully upon the world on Sept. 1, 1939. After the British evacuation of Dunkirk and German settlement with France, hostilities raged across the Channel. Alarmed by this fratricidal war between white nations, Germany put forth new peace feelers to no avail. Winston Churchill, in his memoirs, the volume entitled The Grand Alliance, placed British blitz casualties for the period June of 1940 to June of 1941 at 43,381 killed and 50,856 seriously injured. A sizable and influential element of the British population was in favor of a quick and peaceful settlement with Adolf Hitler. They knew his philosophy spelled the doom of 19th century rationalism, money-thought and racial and cultural rot. England was to be assured the maintenance of her overseas empire in exchange for a policy of non-interference with the German social order in Europe. Thousands of Englishmen, including the recently abdicated Edward VIII and Sir Oswald Moseley (who could have well been Prime Minister instead of Jew-tool Churchill) waged an intensive campaign for sanity and cooperation with the new continental power. Yet, due to Roosevelt, other Jews and the International Money Mob, diplomatic channels were blocked and the bombs continued to fall on British and German cities. It was Hess who made a last-ditch effort to have his nation and the British people reach a peaceful accord. In short, he tried desperately to stop World War II.

Flew Solo to Britain

On the evening of May 10, 1941, Hess secretly journeyed to Messerschmitt Field in Lechfeld, a suburb of Augsburg. Commanding a ME-110 aircraft, he flew solo towards the British Isles. He parachuted safely from his craft to the vicinity of Dungavel, Scotland. He was met by a Home Guard detachment and requested to see the Duke of Hamilton, whose estate was approximately ten miles from the drop site. Instead, at the direction of London Jews, he was arrested and tossed into jail for the duration of the war.

A particularly revealing piece of information is a segment of a Churchill memorandum to his foreign secretary on May 13, 1941, in which he alludes to the Internationalists' intention to pre-judge German leaders as "war criminals," as early as 1941. He stated: "This man (Hess), like other Nazi leaders, is potentially a war criminal, and he and his confederates may well be declared outlaws at the close of the war." Note the word potentially.

At the Purim Festival known as the "Nuremberg Trials" held in 1945-46, Hess was placed in the dock as a "major war criminal." He was sentenced to be held incommunicado, confined in a tiny, dungeon-like cell at Spandau for the rest of his life. This was to be the fate of this brave man, who at the risk of his own neck, sought peace in a most direct way — only to be charged with "plotting against the peace."

RUDOLF HESS

Was peace a crime in World War II? Hess rots in Spandau Prison while conservative gasbags yak about economics and jackass preachers sell tours to Israel. How can we break Jewish tyranny when we can not even break Hess out of jail? A sorry situation indeed.

And, ironically, according to the kangaroo court's own calculations, the mythological "slaughter of the six million Jews" got underway in late 1942. It so happened that Hess was sitting in an Allied jail throughout the entire so-called "final solution," yet was implicated as a "major war criminal."

Suffers Ritual Punishment

Today he is the sole inmate of a six hundred man fortress. He is guarded by a four-power team at tremendous expense. He is not allowed to write, to read, to receive visitors. He has seen his wife and son only once during his captivity. Presently 76-years-old, his health is failing. He probably won't have much longer to suffer the torments of International Jewry.

Why must Rudolf Hess perish behind bars? Why was he placed behind bars in the first place? Because it was deemed necessary by vindictive and sadistic Jews who manifest an undying hatred of all those who stand up for their own race and culture. And, to this day, stupid and cowardly "Christian leaders" continue to blithely ignore his pleas for justice — they would rather sell tours to Israel and promote Commu-Zionist activities than campaign for the release and vindication of this brave peacemaker. How about that for the phony Christian "anti-Communist" gasbags and stooges, and their Jewish sidekicks screeching about "humanity" and "peace."

It was tragic that Rudolf Hess never received a Nobel Peace Prize, while an obscenity like the late and unlamented Martin Luther King had one pressed into his blood-stained paw. It was tragic also that Hess should have spent so much as a single minute in any jail. The greatest tragedy, of course, was the purposeful creation of World War II by the Jews and their lackeys. This is the way the enemies of Western Civilization operate.

What can be done now? Very little. One telephone call from our illustrious President and Hess would be released immediately, but we bet you that if Nixon were to take such action, Kissinger would grab the phone from his hands. Of course the Nobel Prize Committee, c/o Swedish Academy of Science, Stockholm, 50, could suddenly receive a flood of letters suggesting that Hess be flown out of Berlin to receive a Nobel Prize.

More than likely, Rudolf Hess, a single hero, an isolated Soldier of the West who has consumed his prison food and breathed his prison air for thirty years, will pass away quietly behind those forbidding red brick walls — the Prisoner of Peace!

Movement Must Be Built

The important thing for us to do now is to build a movement that will continue the struggle and achieve victory. This is what we must do, we who fight on.

If Hess can be locked away for thirty years, then how long do you think it will take for the thousands of American flyers and our own political prisoners like Bob an urgent appeal from . . .

P.O. BOX 68
NORBORNE, MISSOURI

To the Editor:

We have just received a bill from Mr. DePugh's lawyer which is in excess of the amount of money we now have in our Defense Fund. We must raise at least $2,000 and are asking for your help. In view of the research, work and time spent in preparing Mr. DePugh's appeal, the lawyer's fee is reasonable.

Mr. DePugh has become a martyr to the cause of freedom for America. He will never change his principles. Unfortunately, as a prisoner he cannot even express his views. He has no freedom of speech or assembly. His only recourse is through the courts. Will you help?

DePugh and many others to be freed? How many more good men will be railroaded to silence before we wake up and create a movement which will allow us to survive?

If the fate of Rudolf Hess, the German of another era, seems vague and abstract to some of our readers, please think of this: If the World Conspirators can put Rudolf Hess in jail for thirty years for trying to stop a world war in which millions perished — they can put all of us in jail for thirty years for much less!

Common Sense.
